1. PREAMBLE

The Related Party Transactions Policy (the “Policy”) is framed in accordance with the requirements of the applicable law in force. Regulation 23 of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (“Listing Regulations”), as amended from time to time (hereinafter referred to as “Regulation 23”), Section 188 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the “Act”) along with Rule 6A of Companies (Meeting of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014, as amended from time to time, and Ind AS 24 on Related Party Disclosures (“Ind AS”), deal with provisions regarding Related Party Transactions (RPTs).

Praj Industries Limited (the “Company” or “Praj”) recognizes the principles and objectives behind the mechanism prescribed by Regulation 23 and, applicable provisions of the Act and Ind AS, with respect to the related party transactions. Being a listed Company, the above regulatory framework needs to be considered cumulatively and carefully as it mandates application of stricter of all applicable requirements.

The objective of this policy is to ensure that the Related Party Transactions are in the best interests of the Company and its stakeholders and have been approved by following due processes as set out by the Company and as required by applicable laws and regulations. The policy is intended to ensure transparency while dealing with the related parties, proper approval and reporting of transactions between the Company and its Related Parties.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 “Act” means the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules framed there under, including any modifications, amendments, clarifications, circulars or re-enactment thereof.

2.2 “Arm’s Length Transaction” as defined under Section 188(1) of the Act, shall mean a transaction between two related parties that is conducted as if they were unrelated, so that there is no conflict of interest.

Pricing, though being an important factor, may not be the only determinant of a transaction being at arm’s length.

In order to ensure that the transaction is at arm’s length, judgement needs to be applied and the following points can be considered for the same:

- ✓ Transaction is in line with the principles of the Transfer Pricing Guidelines of the Income Tax Act, 1961 (though transfer pricing is not applicable for domestic transactions under the IT Act)
- ✓ Transaction is as per the prevailing pricing policy / market price / same price (or margin) as compared to transactions with unrelated parties.
- ✓ Transaction is comparable with third party quotations / bids.

- ✓ Transaction is based on cost sharing agreements (in cases where cost is shared based on benefits derived).
- ✓ Transaction is at a price in line with the valuation done by an external independent expert.
- ✓ Guidance may be taken from the examples laid down in the Standard on Auditing 550 on Related Parties (SA 550) for this purpose.

- 2.3 “Industry Standards” shall mean the Industry Standards on “Minimum information to be provided to the Audit Committee and Shareholders for approval of Related Party Transactions” as notified by SEBI vide its circular dated June 26, 2025, and subsequently as amended from time to time.
- 2.4 “Key Managerial Personnel” shall have the meaning assigned to it under Section 2(51) of the Act.
- 2.5 “Material modification to Related Party Transactions” means any subsequent change in the Related Party Transaction, having variance of 20% of the existing limit.
- 2.6 “Material Related Party Transactions” shall mean a transaction with a Related Party if the transaction / transactions to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds the thresholds specified in Schedule XII of the Listing Regulations, the Act and Rules made thereunder from time to time.
- 2.7 “Office or place of profit” means any office or place-
- (i) where such office or place is held by a director, if the director holding it receives from the company anything by way of remuneration over and above the remuneration to which he is entitled as director, by way of salary, fee, commission, perquisites, any rent-free accommodation, or otherwise;
 - (ii) where such office or place is held by an individual other than a director or by any firm, private company or other body corporate, if the individual, firm, private company or body corporate holding it receives from the company anything by way of remuneration, salary, fee, commission, perquisites, any rent-free accommodation, or otherwise.
- 2.8 “Ordinary course of business” means the usual transactions, customs and practices undertaken by the Company, to conduct its business operations and activities and includes all such activities which the company can undertake as per Memorandum & Articles of Association.
- 2.9 “Policy” means this policy of the Company on Related Party Transactions.
- 2.10 “Related Party” means an individual, entity, firm, body corporate or person as defined in Section 2(76) of the Act, Regulation 2(1)(zb) of Listing Regulations, and Ind AS 24 (as detailed below), as may be amended from time to time.

3. MATERIAL RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Material Related Party Transactions shall be identified in accordance with Regulation 23 of the Listing Regulations, as may be amended from time to time.

4. MECHANISM FOR PLACING PROPOSED RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS BEFORE THE AUDIT COMMITTEE AND THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR THEIR APPROVAL

As per Regulation 23(5) of the Listing Regulations,

The Company has set up appropriate internal procedures for capturing proposed Related Party Transactions from the data available with the Company and on getting the information on such proposed transactions the same is brought to the notice of management for initiating due process for approval of the same by the Audit Committee (omnibus approval) and/or as the case may be, by the Board of Directors or by the Members/shareholders of the Company.

Role of Audit Committee:

- a) All RPTs shall be referred to the Audit Committee for prior approval irrespective of its materiality. The Audit Committee shall also approve any subsequent material modification of RPTs.
- b) Transactions between a subsidiary of the listed entity and the subsidiary's related party, shall be approved by the Audit Committee of the listed entity. Such approval will be required only if the value of such transaction whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds ten per cent of the annual standalone turnover, as per the last audited financial statements of the subsidiary.
- c) Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for Related Party Transactions proposed to be entered into by the Company subject to certain conditions as mentioned in Regulation 23 (3) of the Listing Regulations.

The Audit Committee will take into account following aspects while granting omnibus approval to the RPTs:

- ✓ Name of the Related Party and its relationship with the listed entity or its Subsidiary Company, including nature of its concern or interest (financial or otherwise)
- ✓ Type, material terms and particulars of the proposed transaction;
- ✓ Tenure of the proposed transaction;
- ✓ Value of the proposed transaction;
- ✓ The percentage of the listed entity's annual consolidated turnover, for the immediately preceding financial year, that is represented by the value of the proposed transaction (and for a RPT involving a subsidiary, such percentage calculated on the basis of the subsidiary's annual turnover on a standalone basis shall be additionally provided).
- ✓ If the transaction relates to any loans, inter-corporate deposits, advances or investments made or given by the listed entity or its subsidiary:
 - details of the source of funds in connection with the proposed transaction;
 - where any financial indebtedness is incurred to make or give loans, inter-corporate deposits, advances or investments;
 - nature of indebtedness;
 - cost of funds; and
 - tenure.
- ✓ applicable terms, including covenants, tenure, interest rate and repayment schedule, whether secured or unsecured; if secured, the nature of security; and
- ✓ the purpose for which the funds will be utilized by the ultimate beneficiary of such funds pursuant to the RPT.
- ✓ justification as to why the RPT is in the interest of the listed entity;
- ✓ a copy of the valuation or other external party report, if any such report has been relied upon;

- ✓ percentage of the counter-party's annual consolidated turnover that is represented by the value of the proposed RPT on a voluntary basis.
 - ✓ any other information relevant or important for the Audit Committee/ Board to take a decision on the proposed transaction;
- d) However, omnibus approval shall not be made for transactions in respect of selling or disposing of the undertaking of the Company.
- e) The Audit Committee shall review, at least on quarterly basis, the details of related party transactions entered into by the Company pursuant to each of the omnibus approvals given.
- f) The Board, as and when it shall deem fit and expedient, shall take an objective evaluation of the reviews made by Audit Committee of any related party transaction consistent with the objectives and principles of Regulation 23 and applicable provisions of the Act,
- g) The Audit Committee may recommend any modifications required in the policy.
- h) The Audit Committee shall also review the status of long term (more than one year) or recurring RPTs on an annual basis.
- i) The remuneration and sitting fees paid by the Company or its subsidiary to its director, key managerial personnel or senior management, except who is part of promoter or promoter group, shall not require approval of the audit committee provided that the same is not material.
- j) The members of the audit committee, who are independent directors, may ratify related party transactions within three months from the date of the transaction or in the immediate next meeting of the audit committee, whichever is earlier, subject to the following conditions:
- the value of the ratified transaction(s) with a related party, whether entered into individually or taken together, during a financial year shall not exceed rupees one crore;
 - the transaction is not material;
 - rationale for inability to seek prior approval for the transaction shall be placed before the audit committee at the time of seeking ratification;
 - the details of ratification shall be disclosed along with the disclosures of related party transactions to be submitted to the Stock Exchanges
- k) In case transactions are not in ordinary course of business and/or not at arm's length, then apart from omnibus approval of Audit Committee, approval of Board shall also require. Where the Audit Committee does not approve the RPTs, it shall make its recommendations to the Board for approval. If prior approval of Board or shareholders has not been taken, then such transaction needs to be ratified within 3 months of the date of entering into contract/ arrangement.

Provisions of Sub-Regulations (2), (3) and (4) of Regulation 23 of the Listing Regulations i.e. regarding prior approval, omnibus approval and approval of shareholders shall not be applicable in the following:

- a) transactions entered into between a holding company and its wholly owned subsidiary whose accounts are consolidated with such holding company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.
- b) transactions entered into between two wholly owned subsidiaries of the listed holding company, whose accounts are consolidated with such holding company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval

Members of the Audit Committee, who are independent directors, shall approve Related Party Transactions.

The Audit Committee, at the time of approval of RPTs, shall take into consideration the certificate to be placed before it by the Managing Director or Chief Financial Officer or any other KMP of the Company, confirming that the RPT(s) to be entered into are in the interest of the Company and the terms and conditions of the proposed RPT(s) are not unfavourable to the Company, compared to terms and conditions, had similar transaction(s) been entered into with an unrelated party. This certificate shall be placed before the Committee in terms of the Industry Standards.

Role of Board of Directors:

- a) Board shall take note of all Related Party Transactions, duly approved by the Audit Committee.
- b) The Board will approve all RPT's which are not at arm's length and / or which are not in the ordinary course of business.

Once contracts / arrangements with related parties are approved by the Audit Committee / Board, transactions arising out of the same and which are within the omnibus limits as approved by the Audit Committee, would not be subject to evaluation when they are executed. This process will be monitored by the Finance & Accounts head continuously.

Approval of Shareholders:

Pursuant to Rule 15 of Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014, without prior approval of shareholders by a Resolution, a Company cannot transact with related parties where the transaction or transactions to be entered into are for-

Type of Transaction	Maximum Limit
sale, purchase or supply of any goods or materials, directly or through appointment of agent	amounting to 10% or more of the turnover selling or otherwise disposing of or buying property of any kind, directly or through appointment of agent	amounting to 10% or more of net worth leasing of property of any kind	amounting to 10% or more of the turnover

availing or rendering of any services, directly or through appointment of agent	amounting to 10% or more of the turnover appointment to any office or place of profit in the company, its subsidiary company or associate company	monthly remuneration exceeding ₹ 2.50 lakh remuneration for underwriting the subscription of any securities or derivatives thereof of the company	exceeding 1% of the net worth

Note: the limits specified in sub-clauses (i) to (iv) shall apply for transaction or transactions to be entered into either individually or taken together with the previous transactions during a financial year.

5. INFORMATION AND RECORDS

To review a Related Party Transaction, the Audit Committee and the Board as the case may be, shall be provided with all relevant material information of the Related Party Transaction, including the terms of the transaction, the business purpose of the transaction, the benefits to the Company and to the Related Party, and any other relevant matters. The Audit Committee may ask for the further information for reviewing the same.

6. DISCLOSURES

Disclosures as required by the Act, the Listing Regulations, Ind AS and any other applicable law in force will be made by the Company at such frequency and in such format and to such agency as may be required by the applicable law in force.

Any amendment to this policy shall be first considered at the Audit Committee Meeting and same shall be recommended by it to the Board for their approval.

After approval by the Board of Directors, this Policy will be uploaded on the website of the Company i.e. www.praj.net.

The Company shall place all the information, as specified in Industry Standards read with the provisions of the Listing Regulations, the Act as well as additional information specified by SEBI from time to time, for review of the Audit Committee while seeking prior approval of the RPTs or in the Statement to the notice being sent to shareholders for seeking their approval for proposed material RPTs, if any.

The Company shall provide disclosure of the Related Party Transactions to stock exchanges where the Company's securities are listed, in the format as specified by the SEBI/stock exchanges from time to time and within statutory timelines.

7. REVIEW OF POLICY

The Policy shall be subject to periodic review and updated by the Board at an interval not exceeding three years from the date of its previous review/approval.

In case of any subsequent changes in the provisions of the Act, the Listing Regulations, Ind AS or any other applicable law or regulations, which makes any of the provisions in the Policy inconsistent with the Act, Listing regulations, Ind AS or any other applicable law or regulations, the amended provisions of the Act, Listing regulations, Ind AS or any other applicable law or regulations would prevail over the Policy.

The Managing Director or CFO & Director-Resources or Company Secretary are severally authorized to amend the Policy to give effect to any changes / amendments notified by the Regulators (SEBI, MCA etc.). Consequently, the Policy shall be placed before the Audit Committee for review and Board for noting and ratification.
