2 BASIS OF CONTRACT

- 2.1 The Contract contains the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all previous communications, discussions, understandings between the Parties with respect thereto.
- 2.2 The Order constitutes an offer by the Company to engage Service Provider for completion of Work in accordance with these Terms.
- 2.3 The Service Provider shall be deemed to have accepted the Order and all terms and conditions contained therein upon the earlier of: i) Service Provider's written acceptance of Order within 10 calendar days from the date of receipt of Order or ii) commencement of performance of any part of Work by the Service Provider, or iii) Service Provider's any conduct which recognizes the existence of a contractual relationship in respect of the Order. Any failure by the Service Provider to provide written acknowledgment within the aforesaid period shall not affect the validity of the Order, and in such event the Service Provider's commencement of performance or omission shall constitute irrevocable and binding acceptance of the Order and the Contract, including all terms and conditions thereof. The Company may withdraw Order any time before Service Provider's acceptance of the Order.

- 2.4 In the event of a conflict between General Terms, the Contract and the Order, these General Terms shall control, except to the extent of the parties have executed any special conditions or agreement on mutually agreed terms and conditions.
- 2.5 Reference of the Order or Contract or General Terms in any Service Provider's Document shall in no way constitute a modification of any of the Order or Contract.
- 2.6 The Service Provider acknowledges and agrees that the Order or Contract or General Terms does not grant the Service Provider any exclusive right to perform the Work. The Company shall remain free, at its sole discretion, to procure the Goods, material and /or services from other Service Provider's or sources at any time.

3 SCOPE OF SERVICES

- 3.1 The Service Provider shall provide the services for the duration as requested by Company. The Contract shall be valid for the agreed duration as provided under the Order. The Company however reserves the right to extend the duration of the Contract for a further period.
- 3.2 The Service Provider shall provide Work as per agreed specifications, quantity, performance requirements and timelines as provided under Order. It is acknowledged and accepted by the Service Provider that, the Work specified may pertain to its Affiliates and the Service Provider has no reservations to perform the same as per the terms of these General Terms.
- 3.3 The Service Provider shall comply with any performance dates specified in Order.
- 3.4 The Service Provider shall assign qualified, competent, skilled and experienced Staff to perform the Work in timely manner without any disruptions or stoppages. In the event of any delays, non-performance by the Service Provider, the Company reserves the right to appoint any other agency for the completion of work at the cost and risk of the Service Provider.

4 PRICES, PAYMENTS, AND TAXES.

- 4.1 All prices are fixed which includes all taxes and duties such as GST, cess, expenses for packing, storage transportation, insurance, as applicable and covers any addition, deletion and alterations thereto ("Contract Price"). The price and any taxes shall be as specified in the Order. No extra charges of any kind will be allowed unless specifically agreed in writing by the Company.
- 4.2 The Service Provider is deemed to have satisfied itself prior to the Effective Date as to the correctness and sufficiency of the Contract Price. In particular;
 - a) the Service Provider shall be deemed to have received and obtained all necessary information as to risks, contingencies and other circumstances which may influence or affect the Work;
 - b) by signing the Contract the Service Provider accepts total responsibility for having foreseen all difficulties and costs of successfully completing the Work; and
 - c) the Contract Price will not be adjusted to take account of any unforeseen difficulties or costs.
- 4.3 In case the Service Provider is registered as a "Micro" or "Small" Enterprise under the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development Act, 2006 ("MSMED Act") and has provided the Company with a valid Udyam Registration Certificate prior to issuance of the Order, then , the Company shall make payment of Undisputed Invoices within 45 (forty-five) days from the date of acceptance of Work by the Company or the date of deemed acceptance. Such acceptance of the Work by the Company shall be subject to submission of all necessary documents, Bank Guarantee, completion of Company's inspection, testing, etc. No interest, charges, or penalties shall accrue during this period.
- 4.4 Income Tax / Withholding Tax as applicable shall be deducted at the time of any payment and necessary certificate for the tax deducted shall be furnished by the Company to the Service Provider on a financial year basis.

- 4.5 Any increase in costs incurred during the execution of the Work shall be borne solely by the Service Provider, and no claims for price adjustments shall be entertained under any circumstances.
- 4.6 The Service Provider shall be entitled to payment towards Undisputed Invoices for work performed under the terms of Order which shall be subject to a) Company's inspection, testing of contracted Work b) timely submission of applicable documents like statutory returns/ challans, submission of records for statutory compliance, Advance Bank Guarantee (ABG), Performance Bank Guarantee (PBG) by the Service Provider, if any etc. d) receipt of invoice in duplicate along with all necessary supporting documents for status of work, which shall be verified and cleared by the Company.
- 4.7 The Company is not obliged to pay any sum (or interest on such sum) that it disputes in good faith until such sum has been agreed in writing or determined to be properly due to the Service Provider. The parties shall jointly discuss and resolve the dispute within 15 days from the date of dispute.
- 4.8 Any reduction in rate of tax on any Services/Work or the benefit of input tax credit shall be passed on to the Company in its entirety in accordance with Anti-profiteering clause under GST legislation by way of reduction of price.
- 4.9 The Service Provider shall remit the taxes to the government collected from the Company and fill all applicable returns within the prescribed due dates.
- 4.10 The Service Provider shall mention the taxes collected/charged from the Company in its GSTR-1 and GSTR-3. The Company reserves its rights to pay the tax component in the invoices only to the Service Provider, after the Service Provider remits the same to the Government and provides sufficient proof of GST amount charged in the invoice is declared in its GST-1 and GST-3 and payment of taxes has been made.
- 4.11 If any input tax credit (ITC) due to the Company not being received, is short-received or disallowed for any reason, the Service Provider shall promptly reimburse the full shortfall of ITC (including any interest, penalties or fees). Any sums already paid by the Company may be set off against amounts otherwise payable to the Service Provider. The Service Provider shall, within seven (7) days of the Company's request, furnish all documents and information necessary to enable the Company to claim or rectify ITC.
- 4.12 Subject to above, payment to Service Provider shall be made as per the terms of Order and the General Terms. The Service Provider shall submit any other documents which the Company may request prior to the release of the payments.
- 4.13 In all cases other than those covered under clause 4.3, the Service Provider shall grant the Company a credit period of 60 days from the later of (i) the date of acceptance of Work by the Company in accordance with the General Terms, or (ii) the date of receipt of a valid and Undisputed Invoice. No interest, charges, or penalties shall accrue during this credit period.
- 4.14 Invoicing and Payment Process:
- a) Upon completion of entire work, the Service Provider shall issue final invoice to the Company. Each invoice shall be submitted to the Company accompanied by required documents such as (i) written confirmation from the Company as to the completion of the Work; (ii) the supporting documents (including delivery challans, inspection reports, and any other documents) (iii) clearances from the Company in relation to fulfilment of the Service Provider's obligations, (iv) any challan, returns, payment receipts related to compliance of statutory provisions including income tax laws, labour laws (v) supporting documents/ declaration related to handover of necessary tools, accessories, key/licenses, operation and maintenance manuals, drawings/designs and specifications of material, access, manuals, design, source code and other documentation related to the Work.
 - b) Company shall verify the Invoice and required documents against the services rendered, confirm compliance with contractual requirements, and forward the invoice with their certification to its authorized officer for approval and further processing.
 - c) Any Invoice must be submitted within thirty (30) days of the calendar month from the date of acceptance of Work by the Company. In no instance shall Undisputed Invoice be submitted more than forty-five (45) days following the calendar month to which they pertain.

- d) If any discrepancy, deficiency, or non-compliance is identified, authorized officer of the Company shall notify the Service Provider in writing, specifying the reasons for dispute, difference. Invoices so disputed shall be processed for payment only after the Service Provider has rectified the issues to the Company's satisfaction.
 - e) Payment shall be processed only on the basis of invoices duly certified and approved by the Company's authorized officer.
- 4.15 No payments of any amounts or release of any security by the Company to Service Provider shall be deemed or treated as a waiver of any rights or claims of the Company or shall stop or prevent the Company from thereafter making or enforcing any claims or any rights against the Service Provider under the Contract, at law or otherwise in relation to the performance of the Work.
- 4.16 If the Service Provider fails to comply with any of its obligations under the Contract, including but not limited to compliance with applicable laws, regulations, or reporting requirements for the continuous period of 2 months, the Company may, by written notice, suspend all or part of the payments due until such non-compliance is remedied to the Company's satisfaction or regularize the reporting requirements.
- 4.17 The Company may deduct, adjust, retain, or withhold from any sums payable to the Service Provider such amounts as it reasonably determines to be due from the Service Provider, including without limitation Damages, or other recoveries arising from or in connection with the Service Provider's breach of these General Terms or any Order. Such withholding may also cover amounts the Company reasonably anticipates it is likely to incur. Upon final determination of the amount due, the Company shall release to the Service Provider any balance remaining after such deduction. The Service Provider shall have no entitlement to interest on any amounts withheld or delayed under this Clause.
- 4.18 The Company shall be entitled, at its sole discretion and without prejudice to any other rights or remedies available under the Contract or at law, to set off or apply any amounts payable by it to the Service Provider against any amounts due, owing, or reasonably anticipated to become due from the Service Provider to the Company, whether arising under these General Terms, any related Order, or otherwise. The exercise of such right of set off shall not limit or affect the Company's right to recover any balance due from the Service Provider. The Service Provider shall not be entitled to claim any interest or other charges in respect of amounts so set off or withheld.
- 4.19 The Service Provider shall not sell, assign or otherwise transfer, in whole or in part, any book debts, future anticipated debts or other monies owed to it under the Contract to a third party for the purposes of factoring, invoice discounting or any other form of receivables financing, without the Company's prior written consent.
